What if I Don't Get the Services I Want From My County Mental Health Plan?

Marin Behavioral Health and Recovery Services (BHRS) members are encouraged to discuss issues regarding their mental health services directly with their provider. However, members may file a written or oral Grievance at any time without having to discuss the issue with their provider first.

Grievance and Appeal forms and self-addressed envelopes are available for beneficiaries at all provider sites. Alternate electronic formats are also available if you have a visual or hearing impairment. A Grievance, Appeal, or Expedited Appeal may also be initiated by calling toll-free at 1 (888) 818-1115.

Your current Marin Behavioral Health and Recovery Services will NOT be adversely affected in any way by filing a Grievance.

GRIEVANCES

A Grievance is an expression of dissatisfaction about anything regarding your specialty mental health services.

Your Patient's Rights Advocate or any other person you choose may assist you with filing your Grievance. You will receive written notification of receipt of your Grievance, indicating that BHRS will resolve the Grievance within 30 days from the date of filing.

APPEALS

An Appeal is a review by BHRS of an Adverse Benefit Determination. If you request a standard Appeal, BHRS may take up to 30 days to review it.

EXPEDITED APPEALS

If you think that waiting up to 30 days for a standard Appeal decision will jeopardize your life, health, or ability to attain, maintain, or regain maximum function, you may request an expedited Appeal.

STATE FAIR HEARINGS

Medi-Cal beneficiaries have the right to request a State hearing only after appealing an Adverse Benefit Determination and receiving notice that BHRS is upholding the adverse benefit determination. You may contact the Patient's Rights Advocate listed below for assistance in filing for a State Fair Hearing, or you may call the State Fair Hearing Office at 1 (800) 952-5253 (Fax: (916) 229-4110).

Please see The Guide to Medi-Cal Mental Health Services booklet for more information on the various processes listed above.
